The Eastern Territory Staff Songsters is a choir of pastors and members from The Salvation Army church community. Members are drawn from choirs in Puerto Rico, Kentucky, Ohio and along the eastern seaboard from Delaware to Maine. The choir is 30 men's and women's voices strong, with rhythm combo accompaniment, who sing in a variety of musical styles. The singers are volunteer Salvation Army soldiers with diverse vocal backgrounds, a conviction for teaching and leading church ensemble singing and a long-term commitment to ministering in The Salvation Army.
