The Salvation Army Student Fellowship (SASF) is a student fellowship at Asbury University where Salvationists from around the world can come together. The SASF is a community where as a team can come worship and serve together. The group is open to those outside The Salvation Army who would like to be a part of the Fellowship. The SASF participate in Music Ministries, different activities at different Salvation Army corps around Wilmore, KY, as well as hold weekly meetings at the student center on campus. The SASF is a fellowship that is truly dedicated to "doing the most good" in the lives of the students we come into contact with on campus as well as the surrounding community.
